Chula Vista RV Resort

The Chula Vista RV Resort is closing sometime next April, 2021 and is being replaced by a new convention center. The new Costa Vista RV Resort will take its place and is literally right up the road. This resort is to open in April of 2021???

COVID-19+ EDITION

Ugh... if you're like us, we're ending our 4th week (wait...what?) of self-imposed exile. Luckily, I did my Costco run several weeks ago (I do the major shopping once a month) and from what I've seen on the news, I dodged a bullet. I went out once last week, back to Costco for meds and to our local grocery store for several items which I did not find. Oh my gosh... people are crazy!!

We're thankful we have HGTV, Netflix, Hulu, Disney+, Apple TV, CBS All Access, (Picard!) Amazon Prime, YouTube, HBO GO (now HBO Max) and various Podcasts to endure being quarantined. Included in this are books, cooking, cleaning the pool (because ALL of the neighbor tree leaves/needles know exactly where our pool is) and using the treadmill... well... kinda.

With both of us being retired, the house is quiet. Without kids or grandkids around, FaceTime is the communication of choice with Zoom coming around the bend. But, I must say, without all of the enjoyment that family can bring, I do love my nap time!

So... the above 3 paragraphs were started in March. It's now almost October. I know that I have neglected this newsletter. Sorry!

The upside to all of this is that my neighbors' trees (3 Coastal Redwoods, on the other side of the fence behind my diving board) have finally died and have them removed... yea! No more needles clogging up my pool equipment.

MasterClass courses have helped make my cooking and making cocktails at home a BIG thing, although restaurant take-out also works. We have learned how to Zoom with the entire family, I have become a gentleman farmer with my Rosemary, Mint, Basil,

Chef à la Mac

Having been stuck at home for an ETERNITY, I've been experimenting. I made this for dinner the other night. VERY tasty! This dish is likely of Tunisian or Yemini origin. The link for the recipe is under the photo. Pictured here is my beef version.

Shakshuka

OK... I guess that's it for this newsletter. Feedback to mavericksrvclub@gmail.com would be greatly appreciated!

Wishing you all good health and safe travels.

Oregano and peppers: Habanero, Cayenne, Ghost and Carolina Reaper. My wife says I'm crazy. What's new!

Alfa See Yas

Our National Chapter is still looking for members to step up and run for a Board position. The nomination process will end October 31, 2020. If interested, click on this link for the latest Alfa See Yas newsletter. You can also send me an email @ mavericksrvclub@gmail.com if interested.

AOC 2021 National Rally

As far as I know, the Alfa Owner's Club National Rally is still on for April 18-25, 2021 in Branson, MO. Wagon Masters are Steve/Debbie Falcone and Mal/Linda Kelman. Stay tuned for further information.

Mavericks Rally Plans

Here it is almost October, 2020 and the RV Rally (as we know it) still has not surfaced. National organizations are not holding rallies (until at least January) and I don't know about other local clubs. I'm sure everyone has been out traveling by themselves... we have. We're even getting ready to return to Oregon. We haven't been with our daughters or grandchildren since last December except on FaceTime or Zoom. All I know is that I (in good conscience) can't plan for a Mavericks rally until we get this pandemic thing right. No matter what your beliefs are, I will not put anyone at risk. So until further notice, there won't be any scheduled Mavericks rallies.

Do you know we have Mavericks merchandise?

One item is THE hat: $15.00
